Greetings,

I hope that the first month back to teaching was an enjoyable one! I took the advice of good friend and colleague, Danielle McIntyre, and booked a recital for the second week of October. When I announced this unexpectedly early recital, a few students looked shocked, but more seemed happy that their summer practice would pay off so quickly!

It is good to get back into the swing of things, and ORMTA has an exciting lineup of events to look forward to. Flip to the Calendar of Events or visit www.ormtaottawa.ca/events for full details.

During our General Meeting on September 11th, council members shared their plans for the upcoming year. For students, we will be hosting three recitals, two master classes, Competitions, and participation in NAC's pre-concert activities. For teachers there will be two Information Sharing Sessions and the Provincial Convention—filled with master classes, workshops, and professional development opportunities. Minutes from the September Meeting were emailed September 15th, and I'm happy to mail a copy to anyone without email.

This year, Halloween isn't just a day for spooks and candy—it's also the deadline to apply to audition for the Canada Music Week Recital, held November 19th at City View United Church. Canada Music Week has been held annually since instituted by the Canadian Federation of Music Teachers' Association (CFMTA) in 1960. Consider having your students perform in Ottawa's contribution to this nation-wide event!

Also, check the calendar for information regarding the next Information Sharing Session and a Piano Master Class with Prof. David Jalbert, both in November.

Since September, we are delighted to welcome to our branch new members, Michelle Kinsella and Deborah Protsack, and offer best wishes to council member, Tania Granata, on her marriage. Congratulations Jason and Tania!

In closing, I wish you an enjoyable Thanksgiving with family and friends. Josh and I look forward to my parents visiting from Manitoba, and, as often happens, I'll likely play for them, or my mom and I will rip through some duets together. The best of any holiday—music and family, together!

Happy Thanksgiving and happy teaching,
 Amy Boyes

September General Meeting

By Amy Boyes, President

Approximately thirty teachers attended the September General Meeting held at Resurrection Lutheran Church on Monday, September 11th. Thanks to all who attended! The September Meeting is a fantastic opportunity to meet, reconnect with colleagues and learn about council members' plans for the upcoming season.

Also, special guest Jennifer Messer from Steinway Piano Gallery explained Steinway's teacher benefits and Sophie Reussner-Pazur from the National Arts Centre gave details about the upcoming season of Tunetown Family Concerts. Watch for details throughout the year from Olivia Riddell regarding ORMTA's participation in pre-concert activities for Tunetown.

Many thanks to Jennie Smith who set up the used music, available for a free will donation to the ORMTA Scholarship Fund. There were many wonderful finds and I know my studio will benefit from the armload of books that I carried away!

Also many thanks to Social Convenor Susan Blyth-Schofield for setting up and tearing down the meeting space!

Minutes from the meeting were emailed on September 15th. Please let me know if you did not receive them and would like to. I will be happy to send you a copy.

Upcoming Event

Information Sharing Session Monday, November 13th, 2017

9:30 to 11:30a.m. at the house of Paulette Price, 13 Lismer Crescent, Kanata
Topic: Performance Skills, and Building Self Confidence through Performance

A successful performance, even for an audience of one, takes a good deal of practice and preparation. If all goes well, confidence grows. This session will be a discussion of what goes on behind the scenes: the planning, the choices, some of the psychology that is involved in ensuring, as best we can, a successful outcome for our students.

Here are some possible discussion points. Think about what you want to discuss, as there will be no "leader" to point the way.

- Success for all. Is it possible?
- Setting appropriate goals for (and with) students.
- Repertoire choices can make a difference!
- Time flies! Helping students to manage their readiness.
- What does "ready" mean?
- Once ready, how do you keep things fresh?
- Using technology to help.
- Keeping a healthy perspective.
- Lending support at performance venues.

Email Paulette at pauletteprice@rogers.com to reserve your spot, or phone at 613-592-6686. If you are interested in bringing a snack for coffee time, please let Paulette know one week prior to the session.
